Chesterfield Triad provides seniors a voice when it comes to their personal safety and security, and offers them opportunities to socialize, while learning ways to be safe and secure.

Providing a first choice community through excellence in public service

What is Triad?

Chesterfield Triad is a partnership among the county's Sheriff's Office, Police Department, Fire and Emergency Medical Services Department, Aging and Disability Services, senior organizations and individuals from the community. It strives to educate seniors and caregivers about programs, services, techniques and systems that help prevent crime against seniors and improve their quality of life.

Programs and Services for Seniors

For more information about any of the programs listed below, call the Chesterfield County Office of the Aging and Disability Services at 804-768-7878 or Chesterfield County Sheriff's Office at 804-768-7505.

File of Life

Complete this medical data form and keep it on the refrigerator, so responders will have vital medical information in the event of an emergency.

Home Security Assessment

Seniors residing in the county can learn how to improve their home security by arranging for police or sheriff's personnel to conduct free home-security assessments.

Citizens Academy

Participants can learn about the things the Chesterfield County Police Department does to make the community safer.

Senior Citizen Safety Programs

County seniors may participate in safety and fraud-prevention programs offered by various county departments, the Better Business Bureau and the Office of the Attorney General.

Senior Day

This free event on the first Wednesday in May is held to present a safety program, entertainment and an opportunity to visit with more than 65 vendors that provide services for older adults.

Seniors in Touch

Seniors aged 60 and older who live alone and do not have family members living within a 60-mile radius may have a representative of the Chesterfield County Sheriff's Office call or visit them weekly.

Telephone Reassurance

Disabled adults and seniors who live alone or feel isolated may sign up to have volunteers from the Aging and Disability Services Office call them daily or weekly to verify their well-being.

Yellow Dot Program

In the event of an accident, a Yellow Dot sticker on the rear window of a vehicle informs first responders that the glove compartment contains important medical information about the driver.
